

Lok Sabha passes Finance Bill, 2026 with amendments

The Lok Sabha has passed the Finance Bill, 2026, incorporating 32 government amendments, thereby completing its share of the Union Budget approval process for FY 2026–27. This marks a significant legislative step toward implementing the government’s fiscal roadmap for the upcoming financial year.

The Bill will now be taken up by the Rajya Sabha, whose approval will formally finalize the Union Budget for 2026–27. The Budget proposes a total expenditure of INR 53.47 lakh crore, includes a capital outlay of INR 12.2 lakh crore, and targets a 4.3% fiscal deficit, reflecting the government’s continued focus on growth-oriented spending alongside fiscal consolidation.
